

Exhibition Proposal Guidelines

The Savannah Cultural Arts Center's Gallery is managed by the City of Savannah's Department of Cultural Resources. The gallery's mission is to serve and respond to the Savannah community with exhibitions that strengthen awareness and stimulate dialogue through artistic expression. Proposals are considered from individuals and groups for non-degree seeking exhibitions of recent work. Artists selected to participate will agree to show works chosen by the Exhibition Proposal Committee.

Installation

All artwork must come to the SCAC fully ready to hang or display, in the manner previously agreed upon in the exhibition proposal. Artwork not deemed presentation worthy by the SCAC staff will not be accepted for exhibition. Artists and/or Curators are required to participate in the installation of their work.

Promotion

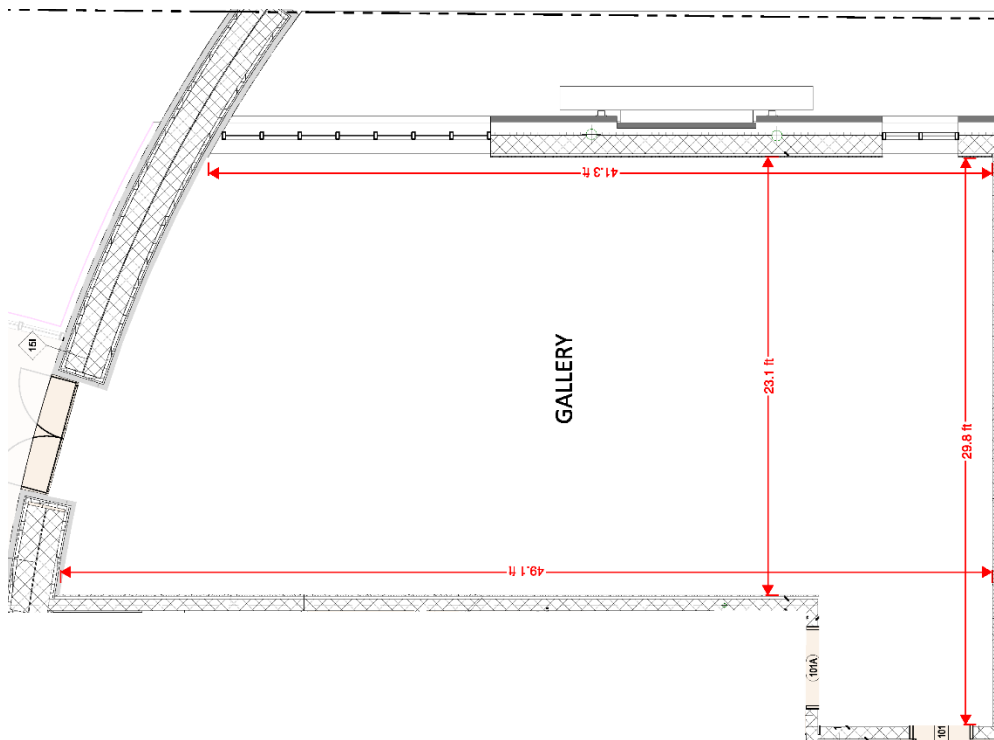

The SCAC provides marketing for all accepted exhibitions in the form of digital marketing. While the design of promotional material may be discussed with exhibiting artists, all final decisions are made by SCAC Director and Marketing Coordinator. The SCAC social media platform handles are @SavannahCAC on Instagram and Twitter and Savannah Cultural Arts Center on Facebook.

What we provide (free of charge)

- Month long exhibition
- Opening reception (light refreshments provided; no alcoholic beverages)
- Promotion on Savannah Cultural Arts Center social media channels

Review Process

All exhibition proposals are reviewed by the exhibition proposal committee. The Exhibition Proposal Committee is comprised of local curators and creative professionals in the City of Savannah. Proposals are accepted on a rolling basis and judged by the quality of work and concept, the strength of the application and the ability to fit into the center's mission. Artists selected to exhibit their work will be notified by SCAC staff.
